RALLY REPORT

January Rally

A fun day was had by all that attended the first rally for the year at Westbury.

Work on flat riding in the dressage arena with Kristin Pitt was enjoyed by riders of all levels. This included a few poles and cones to keep everyone on their toes.

David Quinn had his eager pupils in the settling in class working on the confidence of both horse and rider.

Gaylene Padman and daughter Amanda presented a course of interesting but challenging obstacles for us. After the morning of exposing the horses to the new obstacles, after lunch riders put their skills to the test by riding the course under competition conditions. Many laughs were had by all who participated as well as the spectators.
